

Disability:IN Greater Wichita

Come and enjoy yourself and meet your next GREAT business contact at the Best Practices & Brews Mixer

There will be a Short experiential activity to get you thinking about your "best Practices". This activity will help you work more efficiently & also help retain employees.

September 25th

September 25th
Nortons Brewery
125 N St Francis
4:00 to 6:00
Member $15
Nonmember $20
CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

Presenter: Jennifer P. Stone has a Ph.D. in Interdisciplinary Teaching and Learning from the University of Texas of San Antonio with an emphasis in special education. Currently she is an Assistant Professor of Teaching Education in the School of Education at Wichita State University. Dr. Stone has had over 20 years working in Pk-12 education and teacher education. She has presented nationally at the Council for Exceptional Children and the National Association for the Education of Young Children. Dr. Stone has a passion for ensuring inclusive education and experience for people of all abilities and ages. Among her research interest are using Universal Design for Learning in early education and higher education, the use of inclusive language on a campus of higher education, and the perceptions of pre-service teachers in regards to students with exceptionalities. She is an executive board member for Families Together Inc, has worked closely with Starkey on the activities committee, and is the program chair and coordinator for the Early Childhood Unified program at WSU.

Thank you to our SPONSORS